Army Construction

Armies must be legal to be used and consist of units and unit cards available as of 3/11/2023. Pre-releases, sneak-peaks, and Hand of the King models with rules available on War Council, ASOIAFBuilder, and the CMON Site, may be included in your army. Your two Army lists must be at or under the 40-point cost for this event, and both lists must be from the same faction. Your Army may not have a mounted Commander. (Use a 0-point commander)

Model Use

All Models are CMoN/Darksword ASOIAF Models

Painting and Presentation

Adepticon encourages the full Hobby experience. Painting is not mandatory but encouraged. Be proud of your work. Display boards are encouraged but should not exceed 30" w x 30" d x 30" h. Display your army between rounds. Be proud!

In the event of an accident, Adepticon does have a Mini-Medic station in the main hallway.

Who's The Boss?

As General Sherman said during the Civil War, "All War is Hell". Things happen, and you never get all the things you want. Circumstances may take a Commander away from their army, and a replacement must be used. This is what happens here. Your Commander gets whisked away, and you are randomly assigned a new Commander from another Faction (You will never be assigned a Commander from your faction, always from any of the remaining factions). You will have 20 minutes to decide which list you wish to use with your new Commander.

Gaming Etiquette

All tables are 4x4. Please be on time for your game. Failure to be at your table at the start of play can result in a 1-5 Secondary Point deduction. We know Adepticon is huge, and things happen, but please be courteous.

Please discuss your dice habits, i.e., I pick up my misses or hits, and how you wish to judge cocked, dropped, or dice on terrain or trays.

Be aware of the gamers around you and folks in the aisles. Please be careful with the food and beverages you bring into the venue if allowed during the tournament.

Pregame per Tournament Guidelines

Once you and your opponent are at your table, share your list and answer any questions. You may now begin terrain selection and deployment, as well as objective placements and side selection, per the Game Mode. Once complete, flip your deck face-up, in front of your opponent, then shuffle and count out your deck face down to prove you have 20 tactics cards. Cut your opponent's deck (if you choose to do so) after they have done the same. Best of luck to you both.

Adepticon CMON Tournament Scoring Method

For this Tourney, the basis of scoring will follow the current Tournament Guidelines document (v1.6) [Tournament Points, Secondary Points, Unit Points (Total Points of Destroyed Units)] Please refer to those documents specifically. As Adepticon is founded on Sportsmanship and the Hobby in general, we are layering those scoring elements on top. Per the Game Mode specified, the Game ends at the end of the Round when one of the opponents reaches 10 Coins (VP). At the end of the Round, the player with the most Coins is Victor. If either player has met or exceeded the Level of Victory, the player with the highest Victory Point total is awarded the victory. If the comparison is a Draw, and it is not the end of Round 6 and 'No New Rounds' has not been called, you may request a judge to rule to continue and play another round. If the judge rules there is too little time to continue, please count up the unit cost of all units destroyed and compare. Draws are meant to be rare but may happen.

Sportsmanship:

Adepticon encourages the highest levels of sportsmanship of its attendees. (See the Adepticon Code of Conduct) We do wish to recognize those players who go out of their way to ensure the experience is positive for all. We utilize a simple checklist on the scoring sheet.

Appearance:

To be clear, you do not have to have a painted army to play in the tournament.

Adepticon encourages the full Hobby experience. Painting is not mandatory but encouraged. We encourage all players to display their armies between Games if time allows. There is a spot on the final scoring sheet in your packet for marking your favorite army. The checklist will be distributed by the judges during Pregame.

Terrain

Choose 1 player by die roll or mutual agreement. That player rolls the d3+2 per the Randomized Pool rules on Pg26 of the Rulebook. Players alternate rolling 2d6, consulting the Randomized Pool table. No terrain piece may be represented more than twice. If a piece would be a 3rd of that type, the player may select the terrain from that available at the table as long as it is not a 3rd piece of a terrain type placed. After you determine all pieces, alternate placing the terrain piece on the board, per the Rulebook.

Game Modes:

Be prepared for any Game Mode specified in the Game Mode 2021 pdf.
